

As a former civil servant in Electronic Warfare and guided missile electronics, plus a licensed amateur radio operator I advise against against Broadband Over Power Lines (BPL) as it will create interference to many radio communications services.